JUNE 2009

SPLASH INTO SUMMER at BLUEWATER FUN PARK!

When: Tuesday, June 16 @ 4:30-7:00 PM
Where: 1886 London Line
RSVP by June 15 Please

We're kicking off the summer at Splashdown where you can cool off in style! Bring a bathing suit and towel and prepare to get drenched whether you're swimming, going down the slide, or playing on bumper boats! The agency will cover the cost of admission for both Bigs and Littles and will provide cold drinks. Food will not be provided but if you wish to have something to eat you can purchase something from the concession stand.

Rocket Launch is Back Next Month

When: Monday, July 20 @ 5PM, start with a BBQ
Where: Remote Control Airplane Field (on Petrolia Line)
Raindate: Tuesday, July 21

RSVP: as soon as possible and we'll let you know when the rocket models are available

Once again Big and Little Brothers have the opportunity to build a rocket model (quite easy, takes about an hour) with a kit that will be provided. Littles can even personalize it if they like. On the big day bring your completed rocket and we'll all get together at the Remote Control Airplane Field to see how high they can fly. You'll be surprised at how they literally go out of sight! This is a favourite activity of Bigs and Littles alike so don't miss it!

Also we'll have amazing demonstrations of remote control airplanes and Littles will even have the chance to fly one themselves! To kick off this high flying event we'll have a BBQ so come hungry!

BIKE GIVEAWAY!!!

Eligibility: any Little Brother matched or on the waiting list
Deadline: noon on Friday, June 12/09 so don't delay!

Little Brothers, do you want to win a bike? One lucky Little Brother will be getting a new bike just in time for summer fun! All you have to do in order to be eligible is either write a paragraph or two about your favourite summer activities with your Big Brother or draw a picture of the two of you out having fun. Those waiting for a match can imagine what they would like to do when they meet their Big Brother/Couple. It's that easy to enter the contest!!!

We're looking for the best description or picture of how much fun having a Big Brother is!. A winner will be announced on June 15.

2nd Annual Wake-up Call”
July 25th & 26th
Centennial Park

Sarnia’s WAKE-up Call will be back again and taking over the park for 2009. Again this year SWUC is working in partnership with Sarnia's Ribfest and Hobbyfest. Both of these events are annual events that take place in Sarnia

Welcome

We would like to extend a warm welcome to Jeff Nace who is joining us this summer helping with some of the agency’s recruitment and fundraising activities. Jeff is on vacation from the University of Waterloo where he is majoring in English and History. He’d like to eventually pursue a career in teaching. In the meantime we will surely keep Jeff busy this summer. We would also like to welcome Jeff as a new Big Brother and I’m sure you’ll see him and his Little Brother Kevyn out at some agency activities.

SWUC currently plans to follow through with each of the 2008 events; add an additional day, introduce a new feature to the event and a brand new format. (outlaw amateur division)

Sarnia’s WAKE-up Call will remain a free admission event for 2009.

LABOUR DAY PARADE

Have you ever taken part in the Labour Day Parade before? This year Big Brothers is thinking of putting in a float. We are looking for Big and Little Brothers who would like to help. We need help with decorating and being on the float. If you have any suggestions on decorating the float it would be greatly appreciated. Little Brothers did you know that you can enter in the bike decorating contest as well? Call 519-336-0460 for more info.
